Crawford Names Tom Trezise Vice President of Casualty

ATLANTA (January 7, 2015) – Crawford & Company announced today that Tom Trezise has been named vice president of casualty for its U.S. Property & Casualty unit. He brings more than 35 years of legal and claims experience to his position, and he reports to David Repinski, chief executive officer, U.S. Property & Casualty.

“Tom has had a very successful career as both a lawyer and senior claims executive, and we are excited that he has joined the U.S. Property & Casualty leadership team at Crawford,” said Repinski. “We look forward to benefitting from his experience and talent.”

In his new role Trezise oversees the Company’s casualty services as well as its Affinity, Transportation and Vehicle Services claims operations. He will also collaborate with his colleagues in Crawford Global Technical Services® (GTS®) to develop a market-driven casualty product that includes high-end / complex casualty losses. GTS® is Crawford’s definitive solution for large, complex claims, providing the highest level of world-class talent in the industry’s largest network to strategically manage losses around the globe.

Prior to joining Crawford, Trezise held senior management positions with a number of insurance companies, including Crum & Forster, Renaissance Reinsurance, XL Insurance and St. Paul Companies/USF&G. Earlier in his career he worked for 14 years for the law firm of Semmes, Bowen & Semmes, eventually becoming a partner.
