Crawford Global Technical Services® Strengthens Team

Highly Experienced Adjusters added in New York, Illinois and California

ATLANTA (May 11, 2015) – Crawford & Company® (NYSE: CRDA; CRDB), the world's largest independent provider of claims management solutions, has announced that its Crawford Global Technical Services® (GTS®) unit has added three experienced adjusters across the U.S., contributing to its ongoing worldwide expansion. The three adjusters are based in the states of New York, Illinois and California. GTS is Crawford's global solution for large, complex claims.

The new GTS adjusters are:

- James Boos has joined as a national general adjuster in the GTS New York office. He previously served as a general adjuster at Hanover Insurance, where he held various adjusting positions during 20 years with the company. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Clarion University of Pennsylvania and is a Property Claims Law Associate.
- Marty Eazor is rejoining Crawford as a regional general adjuster, and he has almost 20 years of claims handling experience. He is based in Brea, California and will be covering the southern part of the state. He most recently served as marketing manager for the Rimkus Consulting Group and had held multiple positions at Crawford as an adjuster, supervisor and manager over nine years with the company. Eazor is a graduate of Whittier College with a bachelor's degree in History.
- Joseph Kucharz is a new executive general adjuster in Chicago who has also come back to GTS, bringing more than 40 years of experience to his new role. He previously served in the same position with York Specialized Loss Adjusting for six years. Prior to that he was an executive
