Broadspire® Vice President Joins ASPHP Board of Directors

ATLANTA (May 13, 2016) – Candy Raphan, Broadspire regional vice president of Client Services, Medical Management, has been elected to the board of directors of the Association of Safe Patient Handling Professionals, Inc. (ASPHP).

“I am honored to have been elected to the board,” said Raphan, whose certifications include being a Registered Nurse and Certified Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner. “As a clinician and an individual who advocates and supports total health and well-being, the mission, vision and values of the organization supports both caregiver and patient safety. ASPHP brings together clinicians, educators, researchers and ergonomic professionals worldwide—seeking safety and health of our workforce, patients and facility residents.”

Danielle Lisenbey, Broadspire president and CEO, said, “Candy is a seasoned, knowledgeable leader whose experience and insight will surely be a tremendous asset to the ASPHP board. She understands the importance of safe patient handling for patients and healthcare workers alike.”

A Broadspire employee for 25 years, Raphan interacts with clients, brokers and occupational health staff that support the health and wellness of employees representing various industry sectors; and is responsible for developing strategic clinical programs designed to minimize disability. She has held various management roles in a variety areas that include Occupational and Non-occupational Disability Management, Utilization Management, Medical Bill Review, Quality, and Medical Management Strategic Outcomes.
