Crawford® Donates $100,000+ to Victims of Fort McMurray Wildfires
*Money raised by global employees and Board

ATLANTA (July 14, 2016) – After launching a global Employee Giving Program two months ago, Crawford & Company® will present the Canadian Red Cross with more than $100,000 to help the citizens of Northern Alberta with essential needs. The program was initiated in May after the Fort McMurray wildfires forced the evacuation of nearly 90,000 residents of Wood Buffalo, Alberta, and destroyed about 2,400 homes and other buildings.

“I am proud that Crawford® employees globally, as well as our Board of Directors, showed such an outpouring of support by contributing to this community in its time of need,” said Harsha V. Agadi, president and CEO. “This is a testament that we truly live up to the name of our employee assistance program, Crawford Cares.”

The Company matched 100 percent of employee donations through July 1, which will be given to the Canadian Red Cross this month.

“Our Canadian operation has received tremendous support from our Crawford colleagues around the globe,” said Pat Van Bakel, CEO of Crawford & Company (Canada) Inc. “We are thankful and fortunate to be able to help this community, which is in the process of rebuilding after such devastation.”

The Insurance Bureau of Canada recently reported the Fort McMurray wildfires are the most expensive disaster in the country’s history, totaling an estimated $3.58 billion.
